India @ 100 in the Making: A Roadmap from 2025 to 2047

On August 15th, 1947, India had its Tryst with Destiny- the country woke up to freedom with more questions than answers. What kind of nation would it become? Could it feed its 330 million people, educate its children, and stand tall on the world stage? This was in the aftermath of World War II and the partition of the country both in the West and East. Over the decades, the answers came, sometimes slowly, sometimes in bold leaps.

Can AI and robotics bring manufacturing back to the US?

Apple has pledged to invest more than $500 billion in the US over the next four years as "...support for American manufacturing." Yet, as the country's Commerce Secretary recalled in a recent interview, when Tim Cook was asked when the iPhone would be manufactured in America, he said he would need robotic arms... at scale and with precision.
