

Inside Private Equity's $700 Billion Liquidity Experiment

By Surashree Sahasrabudhe - Senior Manager, Investment Research

Historically, NAV lending was the domain of "backwater operators" or "smaller private equity sponsors owning distressed assets" who lacked access to traditional financing. This perception is rapidly changing, creating a paradox: while the tool remains controversial for fundamentally altering risk, some of the world's most sophisticated institutional investors are now embracing it.

Read More

In case you missed our top posts on LinkedIn-

- The world is running on chips and India is gearing up to claim its share
- H1B visas and the 100,000-dollar question

Stay in touch... we'd love to hear from you!